Garden poetry for the overworked and time challenged.By Patricia LanzaThe Literary Gardener was a treat I gave myself. Like many others today, I have little time to read and relax. I keep this book by my chair and pick it up and read several pages while I enjoy the photos. It helps me relax.The beautiful photographs inspire me to be a better gardener. The beautiful words help connect me to those who have come, some who have gone, leaving behind lessons to live by.The author, Walter Chandoha, shows a gentle spirit with this work.

The Literary Gardener is a loving celebration of the seasons that marries the haunting magic of the written work with wistful vignettes of flowers and fruits, vegetables and grasses, capturing the delicate quality in nature that has inspired poets and writers for hundreds of years. 90 photos.
