When I saw that she had a devotional coming out I bought it right away and it has been truly delightful. Each day has a observation or short story that is inspiring. Sandra writes about the common things of life in an uncommon way. It is a treasure of the greatest gifts of life, faith, family, nature, and home. There are reading for every day of the year. I like that instead of generic rambling, each day's devotional matches the season. It almost like sitting down with a friend, having a cup of tea and chatting about life. Each page ends with a short passage from the Bible that goes with Sandra's musings. It only takes a few minutes to read each day. I would highly recommend this devotional. It has brought encouragement and peace to my quiet times. I am a big fan of Sandra Byrd's and as such I was all agog when I heard she had "The One Year Home and Garden Devotions" devotional releasing this month (September 2015). I pre-ordered it in August and then tried not to think about it as I could hardly wait for it! :) I just received this book last week and it's wonderful. I've thumbed through it, read a day here and there and will start my reading plan in earnest October 1st, just because I'm weird that way ;) lol. Sandra shares tips at the start of each month and the mix of personal stories with added scripture are encouraging, uplifting and real. It's like having a chat with a good friend who comes along side you! I highly recommend buying The One Year Home ad Garden Devotions. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Favorite devotional By H J Johnson I love to spend time with this devotional. It feels like I'm taking a moment for coffee and a conversation with a wise, fun, authentic and entertaining friend. Sandra uses her own life experiences and every day items to relay Biblical truths. I recommend this devotional to a wide audience of readers.

The One Year Home and Garden Devotions offers an encouraging, applicable, sometimes humorous, and always personal word each day for contemporary women of all ages who delight in being busy at home. The devotions are written in first person, offering transparency and personal life lessons like the following: There is something poignant and meaningful about upcycling an abandoned planter with its well-earned patina while considering how the lines life has etched on us actually make us more appealing.
