From Brand: Frances Lincoln : The Royal Horticultural Society Treasury of Garden Writing before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Royal Horticultural Society Treasury of Garden Writing:

A companion to The RHS Treasure of Garden Verse, this anthology presents a selection of garden writing spanning the globe and the centuries. Writers from Francis Bacon to Thoreau, Jane Austen to Karel Capek have been inspired by gardens and gardening, and here there is something for everyone classic pieces and perennial favourites, and some surprising finds. Each piece is illustrated with a botanical print, and engraving or a watercolor drawing from the remarkable collection of the Royal Horticultural Society's Lindley Library. This is the only illustrated book of garden writing on the market making it an ideal gift book, appealing to lovers of literature and gardening. It showcases some of the most beautiful artwork from the enormous range of material in the RHS Lindley Library.

The chief joy is in the quality and variety of the illustrations Telegraph This lovely anthology presents an entertaining selection of writing from all around the world Good Book Guide About the Author Charles Elliott is an editor and writer who lives in London and gardens in Monmouth near the Welsh border.
