The profuse and stunning photographs of diverse locations and styles enrich ones imagination. I am delighted by the range and nuanced use of color in the lovely residences. Thank you Carolyn Englefield for this collection.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Glorious. Spectacular. Utterly lovely.By JeriMaybe those who only enjoy only the most minimalist of modern styles won't love this book, but for anyone else, especially anyone in love with beauty, color, and charm...you need this book.Althorp, the home of the Spencer's, and therefore, Princess Diana, is included. Antiques, rich ancient oil paintings, and a glorious landscape outside.On page 181 a fabulous European room. On 272 a castle with turrets to die for.Oh, you want this book. It will cheer you up even on a gloomy day.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Save Your MoneyBy David A.

ShepherdBook arrived in like new condition. No complaints with seller. I am however very disappointed in the content. Coming from Veranda I expected much more. The book is filled with poor quality, blurry photographs of rustic interiors and paint chipped architecture. I can walk in the Goodwill store and find better inspiration. Shame on you Veranda. You scrapped the bottom of the barrel on this one. Buyers be warned.

What makes a home exceptional with an unforgettable sense of personality and passion? The answer shines through in this breathtaking collection of 30 uniquely stunning European houses, from France and Italy to Switzerland and Sweden. Following on the success of The Houses of Veranda and Veranda The Art of Outdoor Living, this lavish volume from the leading luxury shelter magazine offers a wealth of decorating ideas. Top designers and influential tastemakers share their secrets for creating breathtaking spaces unique to the owners' vision and style. Every interior feels fresh, every approach feels original, and every home feels unified by an incomparable sense of quality and elegance.
