The Architects' Small House Service Bureau : Your Future Home: Architect Designed Houses of the Early 1920's before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Your Future Home: Architect Designed Houses of the Early 1920's:

A reprint of The Architects Small House Service Bureau's 1926 book "Your Future Home: A Selected Collection of Plans for Small Houses from 3 to 6 Rooms, for which complete working drawings may be secured at nominal cost" with an introduction by Lisa D. Schrenk, formerly of the Frank Lloyd Wright Home and Studio. It was this organization's goal to promote the alliance of citizens and architects in the attaining of family homes, and some information about their activities is included, Several pages give advice on selecting a plan and financing
